CAPACITY CARGO ARLEDGE GOING ON LURLINE; IS 8910 TONS TO STATES ON TRANSPORT

With the damage she sustained when she grounded on the reef off Makapuu Point the morning of October 18 all repaired, at a cost to the Matson Navigation Company of $100,000, the Matson steamer Lurline left San Francisco yesterday afternoon for Honolulu, after being off the run since the accident.

Marconigram advices to Castle & Cooke's shipping department this morning say the Lurline has a capacity cargo, practically 9000 tons. There are 7420 tons for Honolulu and 1480 for Kahului, making the total on board 8910 tons.

Because she left San Francisco a day late, the Lurline will not arrive here probably before Wednesday morning. She is in command of Capt. Arthur L. Soule, who was detached from command of the Hlonian and assigned to the Lurline. It is believed by Matson captains that he will be her permanent commander. Capt. Troel K. Smith, who was in command at the time of the grounding, has been dismissed by the company.

No wireless was received today from the Hyades. She is expected to arrive tomorrow, with 5157 tons for Honolulu and 1553 for Kahului.

LIGHTHOUSE MEN IN HONOLULU PROMOTED

Several changes in the office force of the local lighthouse service were announced today by Inspector A. E. Arledge of the 19th lighthouse district, as Hawaii nei is designated.

J. A. Shadinger, who has been chief clerk and special disbursing agent for the lighthouse service here since September 1, 1914, is leaving on the transport Thomas tomorrow with his wife and daughter. He has been transferred to a similar position in the lighthouse service at New Orleans, La. He will spend a month at his home in Chicago en route. New Orleans is headquarters for the 8th district.

J. A. Malone, second clerk in the local office, has been promoted to chief clerk. He has been in the islands about a year but has been in the lighthouse service for many years. Succeeding Malone will be Thomas Wood of the 6th district, Charleston, S. C. He will arrive in Honolulu December 19.

LUKA WILL SAIL SATURDAY FOR SOUTH SEAS

At noon Saturday Judge Henry E. Cooper's schooner Luka will sail, probably from Pier 10, for Fanning Island, taking the next mail for that place. Captain Emil E. Plitz will command her.

From Fanning the Luka may go to Manihiki and Barotonga, the Captain Cook group of islands, 2000 miles due south from Fanning. Judge Cooper said today. The little sailing vessel will probably bring back a capacity cargo of copra or other South Sea products, although the nature of the cargo has not yet been decided on. It will depend on what is offered at Fanning and the other islands.

No passengers will go on the Luka, which will be away from Honolulu six weeks or more. Next February she will make a voyage from this port to Palmyra, the judge says. The Luka's copra capacity is 60 tons. Her agent is the firm of Fred L. Waldron, Ltd.

Wireless advices received today by the shipping department of Theo. H. Davies & Company, Ltd., the local agency, from Capt. J. T. Rolla, commander of the Niagara, say she will be off port at daylight tomorrow. She will dock at Pier 7 and steam about 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for Victoria and Vancouver.

Going to Washington to attend the annual conference of United States lighthouse inspectors, A. E. Arledge, inspector of the 19th lighthouse district, which covers all of Hawaii, will leave on the U. S. army transport Thomas tomorrow afternoon for the mainland to remain in the states until February 20. He has secured leave of absence for the additional time.

Inspector Arledge will attend the conference, which begins January 15 in the office of the bureau of lighthouses, and continues about a week. He will eat Christmas dinner with his parents at his old home in Vosburg, Miss. The inspector attends the conference every two years, inspectors from Alaska, Porto Rico and Hawaii being ordered to attend every other year. In Arledge's absence the local office will be in charge of Superintendent P. C. Palmer.

Mrs. Arledge is now in Minneapolis visiting her parents. One of their children is with her and the other will leave with Arledge tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Arledge will meet at Vosburg and enjoy the Christmas holidays with the former's parents, who have not seen the Arledge children yet, both of them having been born in the islands.

TRANSPORTS NOT ALLOWED CARRY MANILA FREIGHT

In answer to a letter sent by Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, on behalf of the local merchants asking that the transports be allowed to take freight from here to Manila, the war department has replied that it cannot be done as the transports leave here full of cargo.

Brown, however, declares he will not let the matter drop here but will endeavor through Delegate Kuhio to have the war department issue an order permitting the carrying of freight from here whenever space is available.

Brown said today that the local U. S. quartermaster's department had informed him that very often transports left this port bound for Manila without a full cargo, having discharged here part of the freight loaded at San Francisco. This being true, it is evident that the war department is not cognizant of this fact and if informed will likely give the necessary instructions, which will greatly relieve the present freight congestion.

For the past several months, Brown says, the local merchants have found it almost impossible to ship their merchandise, such as coffee and pineapples, to Manila and Oriental ports because the Oriental lines which pass through Honolulu are loaded to capacity at San Francisco. The situation has become acute and as a result the Chamber of Commerce was appealed to for aid. Shipping the goods by means of the transports was suggested but unless the recent decision of the war department can be changed another method will have to be found.

MORE OPIUM IS FOUND IN STEWARD'S CABIN

After eight tins of opium, concealed under his shirt, had been taken from H. Pinto, a Great Northern steward, Monday night, customs inspectors, headed by Gilbert McNicoll, found nine more 5-oz. tins of the drug when they searched the man's room yesterday.

Inspectors McNicoll, Miller, Dodd and Robello made the raid. The additional opium they secured as a result is worth about $900 here. Pinto is out on bail, having secured it yesterday. He is a Chilean and is believed to be connected with a hui of West Coast fireman who are smuggling opium in to San Francisco from Mexico. The steward will be held to the next federal grand jury.

German refugee merchant steamers in port yesterday flew their national flags in celebration of the surrender of Bucharest to the Teutonic forces.
